

I am grateful to the powers that be in the state of New Jersey for enacting tough telephone consumer act standards that give me and my family peace of mind as we are protected from telephone solicitors calling daily, often several times. This email is to urge you to keep New Jersey's stringent telephone consumer act standards intact. Thank you.